Who we are?

Al Murshed Center for Economic Development (AMC) is Kirkuk's Small Business Development Center (SBDC) which was established in December 2006, registered under the Non-Government Organization Assistance Office and the Secretariat Council of Ministries with the full financial fund from Kirkuk Provincial Reconstruction Team (PRT)

The SBDC was created with the technical support and financial assistance of the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) funded Izdihar program under the AMC, with the focus on providing the local community business training courses and other services such as English and computer classes to stimulate economic growth.
